Local Solicitors Firm Sponsor Annual Ball

Irwin Mitchell Solicitors firm have become main sponsor for the Black Tie & Heel's Charity Ball 2014.

The firm which has an office in Newcastle have been great supporters of the charity for a number of years.

Partner, Angela Kirtley said "Irwin Mitchell are very pleased to be sponsoring the Heel and Toe Ball this year. We are proud to support such a fantastic charity which does so much to help children and young people with life changing problems. I never cease to be amazed by the enthusiasm and support provided by the staff and fund raisers at the charity. I am sure the ball will be a huge success."

Irwin Mitchell provide legal support and advice for personal and business issues including medical negligence and personal injury. You can contact one of the team members on 0870 1500 100 or visit their website www.irwinmitchell.com.

Charity Supporters

We are very thrilled to have the support from Avoca who have appointed us as their chosen charity. So far Managing Director - Mark Hooper has completed a skydive, and three other staff members have signed up to take part in the Great North Run 2014.

We are also delighted to be chosen as Spennymoor Town Football Club's official club charity. The club will be fundraising and raising awareness for us throughout the year.

Local Business Complete Cycle Challenge

The staff from Sanofi took to the road on their cycles last weekend to complete the Kielder Cycle Challenge to raise funds for the charity.

The group of 10 cyclists was led by keen cyclist Mark Drummy to complete the 27 mile cycle.

The staff have also recently raised £1,700 as part of our COTY Status.

Well Done Team Sanofi.
